

Golf Courses in Brittany

There are a considerable number of golf courses in Brittany not included here owing to the distance from 'La Grande Maison'. Whether you seek the examination of links golf or prefer the tests of inland golf, there is something here for everyone. Courses are extremely reasonably priced and generally very underplayed. You can be assured of a warm welcome wherever you go with excellent clubhouse facilities extended to guests and some spectacular scenery. We are sure you will enjoy your golf here in Brittany.

Whilst in England I gained a good reputation as a golf coach. Although not PGA qualified and playing to a single figure handicap, I discovered I was a better teacher than player. I taught golfers of all abilities from low single figure through to mid handicap and beginners. Whilst on holiday should you feel the need for help or instruction, I will be happy to oblige.
